REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicants argue that the cited references for the rejection of claims under 35 USC 102(b) and (e) describe antibody production in a general sense but do not describe any specific monoclonal antibodies that bind to the repeat region identified by Applicants within SEQ ID NO:1 as currently claimed. Applicants argue the prior art does not identify or delineate this repeat region and does not describe or demonstrate the production of any specific monoclonal antibodies that bind within the repeat region and do not teach or suggest the significance of the repeat region that would lead a skilled artisan with any reasonable expectation of success to the claimed monoclonal antibodies or to the advantages they offer of preferentially binding cell-associated CA125/O772P (p. 10-11).

The arguments have been found persuasive. The rejections of claims under 35 USC 102(b) and (e) as being anticipated by Mitcham et al (sections 8 and 9 of the previous Office Action) are withdrawn. Mitcham et al teaches SEQ ID NO:388 that has 100% identity to amino acids 14-439 of the instant application's SEQ ID NO:1, CA125/O772P polypeptide, however, SEQ ID NO:388 is 772 amino acids long and although it shares 100% identity with amino acids 14-439 of SEQ ID NO:1 of the instant application, and although it teaches the general production of monoclonal antibodies, Mitcham et al does not identify or delineate this repeat region among the 772 amino acids and does not describe or demonstrate the production of any specific monoclonal antibodies that bind within the repeat region, and does not teach or suggest the significance of the repeat region that would lead a skilled artisan to produce the claimed monoclonal antibodies that would preferentially bind cell-associated CA125/O772P.

All other rejections recited in the Office Action mailed July 11, 2007 are hereby withdrawn.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to LAURA B. GODDARD whose telephone number is (571)272-8788. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:00am-3:30pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Larry Helms can be reached on 571-272-0832. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
